Patrick Duffy Sr.

Hi Timothy,

I am also descended from Patrick Duffy (1787 - Nov 15, 1839) and Mary(Margaret) McNally (1796 - Oct 15, 1848). I have completed a great deal of research on the Duffy and McNally families and would love to share information. I am the grandson of Margaret Catherine Duffy (1922- 1972). Her parents were James Francis Duffy (1880 - 1977) and MaryEleanor Purtill (Ella May) (1882 - 1937). James' parents were JeromeDuffy (1858 - 1928) and Ann Elizabeth Williams (1855 - 1905). Jerome's parents were Patrick Jr. Duffy (1829 - 1885) and Armina Collins (1832 - 1909). Patrick was the son of Patrick Sr. Duffy and Mary McNally. Mary is descended from Owen McNally and Catherine McCadum. Patrick and Mary Duffy had 7 children: Sarah Duffy m. Edward O'Connor, James Duffy m. Mary Kelly, Patrick Duffy m. Armina Collins, Francis Duffy m. Adeline B. Cramer, John Duffy m. Mary O'Neill, Owen Duffy, and Peter W. Duffy m. Emma A. Topliff. I have followed all of these lines, including the Collins line (Israel and Lovina had 8 children).

The Duffy family came from County Monaghan, Ireland, to Ontario, Canada via Quebec abt. 1835. They settled in Oxford County.

You have the headstone of William Patrick Duffy on your website. He is the son of Jerome Duffy and Ann E. Williams. He is my great grandfather's brother. He is James Monroe's nephew.

Lucinda B. Campbell (Blake Monroe Duffie's first wife) is buried Oct 7, 1909 in the Ingersoll Rural Cemetery, Oxford County. Patrick Jr. Duffy is buried in St. Peter's Roman Catholic Cemetery in North Norwich. Almost every person buried there is related to the Duffy/McNally clan. The McNally brother donated the land. Armina Collins died in Brantford and is probably buried there, but I have been unable to locate a record of that yet. James Monroe Duffy and Harriet Allen are both buried in Mt. Elgin Cemetery. The names is transcribed Duffy.

Please feel free to contact me if you like as I have much more info to share.

On the 1901 Census, James Duffy stated that he arrived in Canada in 1834.

The McNally Genealogy

Thank you for visiting the McNally Genealogy Website

Apologies for the slow loading of images but the information included will be of some use to McNally researchers. The McNally's in question originated in the townlands of Loughill, Loughnalonga and later Drumacrutten, Monaghan, County Monaghan, Ireland. The Gaelic translation for such McNallys (of South East Ulster) is generally taken to be Mac Con Ulad. More details inside.

Please feel free and welcome to contact me if you have read the genealogy and feel I can be of assistance. Queries as regards the general process of carrying out a genealogy should be directed at appropriate websites!

The McNally's came in the 1820's. They started out in New York. Were asked to bring a herd of sheep up to Oxford...Liked it and stayed. They then sent for 3 of their sisters to come and keep house

I think some of your Duffies ended up staying in Hamilton as well. I have found info on them. The McNallys and Furlongs and some of the Lambton Co. Duffys went there as well.

James Duffy Sr.

On the 1901 census, James Duffy stated that he arrived in Canada in 1834.

Patrick Duffy Jr.

With the exception of James Munroe Duffy, the family was taken from the 1881 Canadian Census, Norwich North, Oxford South, Ontario

In 1876, Patrick Duffy owned property in Newark, Norwich North Twp, Oxford County. Concession & Lot: VI, 28 / Lot size: 100

In 1876, Patrick Duffy owned property in Mount Elgin, Dereham Twp, Oxford County. Concession & Lot IV, 1 / Lot size: 90

According to my source, altho the lots were in different townships, they basically abutted each other.

Israel & Lavinia Collins listed their religion as "E. Methodist".

James Munroe & Harriet Allen Duffy were listed variously as Methodist and Baptist.

I suspect Armina was a Methodist.

E-Mail, 10/9/07:

Hi Tim Duffie,

Congratulations on all of the work you've done on the Duffy family.

I've spent more than a few hours looking into the Duffy's of Oxford County, Ontario. You might be interested in some references relating to Patrick Duffy, father of James Munroe Duffy and of my great-grandfather Jerome Duffy.

In 2003, I spent a couple of interesting hours at the Woodstock, Ontario headquarters of the Oxford County Genealogical Society and visited nearby St. Peter's R.C. Cemetery, where many Duffys, including Jerome, are buried. While at the O.C.G.S. I looked at a copy of "A Registry of Baptisms and Marriages for Beachville, Woodstock, East Oxford, Windham, Norwich and Blenheim 1850-1853" and found two entries which refer to Patrick Duffy and Armina Collins.

The first entry in the Registry is a record of the marriage of "Patrick Duffy to Armina Collins (Protestant)," on August 16, 1851, in a ceremony conducted by a Father Monaghan witnessed by James Duffy and Mary Kelly. A James Duffy is buried with his wife Mary Kelly in St. Peter's Cemetery. (James & Mary Kelly Duffy: brother & sister-in-law to Patrick)

The second entry is a record of the baptism of a boy of three-months, "Gerom", child of Patrick Duffy and "Maria" Collins, officiated by an apparently semi-literate or at least hard-of-hearing Father Carayon on March 7, 1853. The sponsors? are recorded as "Ossum(?) Duffy" and "Alice Garvy." I believe that "Gerom" died in infancy or sometime before my great-grandfather Jerome was born in 1858. Clearly, Jerome was a name much favoured by the parents.

The O.C.G.S. also has a copy of a six-page undated typescript on the Duffy family of North Norwich Township compiled by Mrs. Jacqueline E. Wilson. This document states that Patrick Duffy and Margaret McNally had four children: Sara (b. 1821; m. Edward O'Connor); James (b. 1823), Patrick (b. 1826?) and Francis (b. 1832). Unfortunately, the focus is on Francis Duffy (Mrs. Wilson's line) and makes only passing reference to the other siblings. I also have some doubts as to the accuracy of the document (eg. Patrick's birth date), but some of her information can be corroborated. Patrick Duffy (d. 1839) is buried in St. Peter's Cemetery with his wife Margaret McNally (d. 1848). She is probably one of the McNally's of county Monaghan who were the first Irish to settle in the area and who donated the land on which St. Peter's was built. James Duffy, Patrick Duffy and Edward O'Connor (Sara) all lived in close proximity in Dereham and North Norwich Townships. According to the Wilson typescript, Francis Duffy and family moved from Oxford County to Brooke Township in Lambton County in 1859.

I have a copy of the Wilson typescript and a transcription of the Registry of Baptisms, etc. which was produced by the Norfolk County Branch of the Ontario Genealogical Society in 1992.

I am continuing to search for Armina's burial place and expect to find it in one of the cemeteries in or around Brantford, Ontario .

Tim,

I found some info on the Duffie family in Hamilton. I find that the larger cities give up less info though. I know that William Godfrey Duffie & Lillian Maude Daniels are buried there in Chapel Hill Memorial Gardens Cemetery. William died May 5, 1972 and Lillian Aug 22, 1963. They had 8 children: Norma, Wilhemena Lillian, Audrey Leroy, Bruce Roy, Ronald Godfrey, Betty Ethelwin (1923- Jul 2006), William Blake, and Clifford Allen (Mar 30, 1917 - Apr 22, 1971). I believe that William Blake and Clifford Allen are buried in the same cemetery as thier parents.

What I know about Allen Duffie is that he died Mar 1971 in Selkirk, Albany, New York. Not sure about Daisy, but if I remember correctly there is plenty on border crossings for her. Allen tends to give various dates for his birth, but I went with Mar 15, 1890 - since it was on the SSDI.

Ida Duffie married first to Alonzo Bruce Walker. They divorced before 1911. He was the step son of James McIntyre - known as the worst Canadian poet. Alonzo Bruce can later be found in Texas. Ida's second husband was Walter Hallam.

I think that is about all I know about the Duffie's that stayed here....
