Service in the 40th Balloon Company

William Duffy was a Chauffeur, First Class with the 40th Balloon Company at Camp John Wise, in San Antonio, Texas. He would have driven one of the many trucks that were used at that time. These may have included gas generators, winch or supply trucks. The war ended just as they were to ship out, and they did not make it to France. They were moved to Brooks Field, on the other side of San Antonio when the Balloon School at Camp Wise was abandoned in early 1919. Story and research was done by Ken Baumann and Richard DesChenes Military Service Historians and R. DesChenes authored a Book WWI US Army Balloon Corps
