Notes for Henry Milton Strader:

General Notes:

Henry Milton presents a bit of a challenge. If you would like the copies, I found some information on him in our German Church Records book of Montgomery County. He and Sallie had one daughter, Caroline, who died in 1906 at the age of 23, from "cancer of the womb". The record indicates that she is buried in Germantown cemetery, and we found Caroline, Milton, and Sallie (and her second husband Charles Pollock) buried together, but in unmarked graves (meaning the information was taken from actual records at the cemetery).

Milton claims to be divorced in the 1910 census, but Sallie still carries the name Strader and says she has been married for 28 years. Milton is in Dayton, Sallie in Germantown. Milton was baptized at the sickbed of his wife in 1896, along with 6 of his wife's relatives. Sallie lives until 1941; I found that a bit melodramatic. I cannot find a death record for Milton anywhere, so that remains a mystery.

Clement Murphy<sup>[12]</sup> was born in Butler, Ohio, USA<sup>[12, 13]</sup>. He died in Winchester, Randolph, Indiana, USA<sup>[12, 13]</sup>.

Clement Murphy and Catherine Trine were married in Winchester, Randolph, Indiana, USA. They had the following children:

- i. Eli Murphy<sup>[12]</sup>.
- ii. Jacob Murphy<sup>[12]</sup>.

Catherine Trine and unknown spouse were married in Winchester, Randolph, Indiana, USA. They had the following children:

- i. Jacob Murphy<sup>[12]</sup>.

8. Susan Jetta Trine-2 (Jacob-1)<sup>[14, 15, 16, 17, 18]</sup> was born in Jun 1835 in Butler, Ohio, USA<sup>[16, 18, 19]</sup>. She died on 16 Jan 1912 in Middletown, Butler, Ohio, USA<sup>[17]</sup>.

Notes for Susan Jetta Trine:

General Notes:

Newspaper articles re Simon Goldman state that he met and married Susan Trine in Trenton, Ohio, in 1857. The 1850 census, taken 16 Sep 1850, shows Susan Trine living in Middletown, Butler County, Ohio, with

Cornelius Hagerman, Age 47
Henrietta Hagerman, Age 46
Cornelia Ann Hagerman, Age 11
Mary Hagerman, Age 7

Looking for an early connection between Simon Goldman and Susan Trine, in 1850 Simon was still commuting from Cincinnati to Middletown selling his wares door-to-door. Possibly they met at that time.....

Simon Goldman<sup>[14, 15, 101, 102, 103, 104, 105, 106, 107]</sup> was born on 12 May 1831 in Zeil, Hassberge, Bayern, Germany<sup>[14, 15, 18, 102, 103, 104, 105]</sup>. He died on 05 Oct 1917 in Middletown, Butler, Ohio, USA<sup>[101]</sup>.

Notes for Simon Goldman:

General Notes:

Simon GOLDMAN, dry-goods merchant in Middletown, was born May 12, 1831, in the village of Zeil, Germany. His parents, Max and Jetta GOLDMAN, were both natives of the same place. Simon GOLDMAN was given a common school education, and at the age of sixteen, unaccompanied by any relatives, came to America. He located first in Cincinnati, September, 1847, among a few relatives and acquaintances, and set about finding employment. With what little money he had he bought a few goods and started out in the country selling them.

Five years, or until 1852, were spent in this occupation. The proceeds of this period of industrious labor were sufficient to enable him to open a store in Middletown, which he did March 1, 1852, in company with Mr. Joseph BUCHMAN. A stock of dry goods and clothing was purchased, and for and a half years a prosperous business was carried on.

At the end of the time Mr. GOLDMAN bought out the interest of Mr. BUCHMAN and carried on the establishment alone until the Spring of 1856. At that time he sold out and went to Madison, Wisconsin, there engaging in the same trade. He returned to Middletown in about six months and opened a store on Third Street which he conducted till 1858. In the meantime he built the store on Main Street which he has since occupied.

Mr. GOLDMAN was one of the organizers and charter stockholders of the First National Bank of Middletown and has been one of its directors for the past twelve years. From 1880 to 1882 he was cashier of the bank, a position he was compelled to resign in consequence of his other business. He is also a stockholder in the Middletown Gas Company, which he was instrumental in organizing. He has been a Mason since 1852, and a Knight of Honor also.

On the 10th of September, 1857, Mr. GOLDMAN was married to Miss Susan TRINE, of Middletown, whose parents died while Susan was still a child. Six children have been born to Mr. and Mrs. GOLDMAN, all living. Harry H., born March 19, 1859, is now engaged in the store; Joseph R. was born December 12, 1861; Charles T. was born June 26, 1863; Jetta was born November 25, 1865; Emma was born November 8, 1867; and Bertha was born August 31, 1875.

Re Charles F. Myers:

In 1908 he again became a proprietor when he bought ninety-eight acres in section 1, Madison township, where he has since made his home. This property, formerly known as the Simon Goldman place, is one and one-quarter miles northeast of Poast Town, and under Mr. Myers' energetic and well-directed management has been made one of the model farms of the community.

Where was Goldman's Grove and the Cave?

Few remember Goldman's Grove, but Middletown Historical Society member, Jack Hagan Jr., recalls it as being at the north end of the Alameda, where there was a woods, the circle being full of old trees. It was named for the Goldman family, Simon Goldman, the city's pioneer merchant, who was the first Jewish person to settle here. He purchased land in the east end as an investment, and laid out Superior, Stanley, and The Alameda, with his youngest son, Charles, handling the Goldman real estate. Charles built and lived in the house still standing at 301 The Alameda. Hagan remembers the Grove as being about 200 feet behind the Goldman home and extending southward on past Sherman. The trees formed an arch, Hagan noting that "sunlight could not penetrate, and in light rain you would not get wet." Others remember the Grove and many of the trees are still standing. A patch of it was found in the backyard of the late Mary Doty Dell, a longtime Middletown Historical Society member.

Many boys grew up in the Grove. In it, the Beck's had a tree house where Calvin and Charles Beck played, letting others also join them. Across the street, Lee and John Phillip dug a cave with many tunnels which made a good place to hide after playing Halloween pranks. Among the boys who played in the Grove and enjoyed hiding in the tunnel in addition to the Becks and Phillips were John and Bud Sebald, Chuck Harmon, Billy Price and Richard, and of course, Jack Hagan. Among the pranks played on Halloween back in those days were upsetting of outhouses, soaping windows, or worse, streaking them with paraffin, throwing corn and putting things on top of wires. Some of the neighborhood residents tried to bribe the boys to hold off on their mischievous projects by putting pies and cakes on the front porch, the beginning of "trick or treat."

Simon Goldman and Susan Jetta Trine were married on 10 Sep 1857. They had the following children:

26. i. Harry H Goldman<sup>[15]</sup> was born on 19 Mar 1859 in Middletown, Butler, Ohio, USA<sup>[15]</sup>. He died on 16 Mar 1928. He married Nettie Byers in Butler, Ohio, USA.

Notes for Emma G Goldman:

General Notes:

My current information (9-20-08) indicates that Emma Goldman did, in fact, marry William Goldman. He may have been a distant cousin, but I cannot find sufficient data on him at this time. I show him as born in N.Y. in 1867. The next data I have is "Wm Goldman, Sacramento, California, 1870". That's not enough for me to accept.

We show that Emma G. Goldman lived in Oregon in 1920...a bit closer to Sacramento...but I need more data to put the two together.

General Notes:

Miltonville Cemetery adjoins the village of Miltonville (north of Trenton, Ohio), located on Howe Road and deeded away by Samuel Mattix and wife for cemetery purposes, has been occupied for the interment of the dead for more than 100 years. The tract contains one acre or more of land and has always been free for burial purposes. A small tract of ground adjoins the U.B. Church, and the church building stands upon the north half of this tract of land. The south half has been laid off for burial lots. The Church Building has since burned down and never rebuilt; the older records of the cemetery were burned also. One acre was donated for cemetery purposes by Peter Thomas, and two acres and a fraction of an acre of ground lying immediately west of the tract was donated by Peter Thomas. The Miltonville Cemetery Association was adopted May 20, 1882.

Trine, Dave Jr. - 10 months - Cholera Infantum - Feb. 15, 1886 - Madison Twp.

Cholera Infantum - Summer complaint. A disease of infants; indigenous to the United States; prevalent during hot weather in most of the towns of the middle and southern, and many of the western States; ordinarily characterized by excessive irritability of stomach, with purging, the stools being thin and colorless, or of various hues of green and pink, but never yellow, except at the onset or during convalescences; fever of an obscurely remittent character; rapid emaciation; cold feet and hands, with preternatural heat of head and abdomen; dry, harsh and wilted skin; excessive thirst; and in the latter stages somnolency, the patient sleeping with his eyes half open; coma; the case terminating often with convulsions. [Hoblyn1855]

A disease that occurs, generally, in the Middle States of the Union, in June or July, and continues during hot weather; hence called the 'summer complaint'. The chief symptoms are vomiting, purging of green or yellow matter, slime, or blood, attended with pain or uneasiness, and swelling of the abdomen, with some pyrexia, generally. Differs little from what is vulgarly called the Watery Gripes in England. [Dunlison1874].

A dangerous summer disease, of infants, caused by hot weather, bad air, or poor milk, and especially fatal in large cities. [Webster].

Often fatal form of gastroenteritis occurring in children; not true cholera but having similar symptoms. [Wordnet]

Trine, Clara - 18 yrs. old - Died of Consumption - March 9, 1886 - Madison Twp.

Trine, James - 14 yrs old - Died of Erysipelas - March 16, 1886 - Madison Twp.

Erysipelas - Contagious skin disease from streptococci with vesicular and bulbous lesions.

An eruptive fever, called by the Romans Ignis sacer; popularly , the Rose, from the color of the skin; and St. Anthony's fire, from the burning heat, or because St. Anthony was supposed to cure it miraculously. [Hoblyn1855]

Redness or inflammation of some part of the skin, with fever, inflammatory or typhoid, and, generally, vesications on the affected part, and symptomatic fever. It is also called St. Anthony's Fire, Ignis Sacer ("Sacred Fire"), the Rose and other names. [Thomas1875]

St. Anthony's fire; a febrile disease accompanied with a diffused inflammation of the skin, which, starting usually from a single point, spreads gradually over its surface. It is usually regarded as contagious, and often occurs epidemically. [Webster1913]

The 1910 census for Joseph & Ottie Bacon, with son Lester, was taken Apr 19, 1910. The area was referred to as "Miami Township, Precinct B, Montgomery County, Ohio."

I believe the census enumerators were instructed to only list those in the home at the time the census is taken. AUGSPURGER, SHLUMEGER, GAUTSCHE (Madison Twp., p. 600)

Moses G. AUGSPURGER was born in Madison Township February 23, 1845, and was married March 19, 1874, to Anna SCHLUMEGER, born the same day as her husband. His parents were Nicholas AUGSPURGER and Magdalena GAUTSCHE, who were born in 1819, and hers were Peter SCHLUMEGER and Jacobina KING. They have three children. Albert was born May 23, 1875; Alma Magdalena, May 25, 1877, and Barda, July 10, 1880. Mr. AUGSPURGER was reared on a farm, working with his father until he was twenty-five years old, when he began to do for himself, renting land of his father. He remained thus until February, 1879, when he bought the place he now occupies, of one hundred and three acres, which is under a good state of cultivation. Mr. AUGSPURGER is a Mennonite, as is also his wife, and their parents before them.

AUGSPURGER, SCHULMEISTER, KINSINGER (Madison Twp., pp. 600-601)

In the year 1819 Christian AUGSPURGER and family, and his brother, Joseph AUGSPURGER, and family and his second cousin, Jacob AUGSPURGER and family, and others, immigrated from near Strasbourg, France, to Butler County and settled near Collinsville, Milford Township, where Christian AUGSPURGER bought a farm of about three hundred acres of land, of which there was about one hundred acres improved; but as the other AUGSPURGERs were short of means they rented farms. Things looked very gloomy then, however, for farmers, and to make money was almost an impossibility as the prices for produce were very much depressed, and there was no money scarcely to be had for any thing. Corn was ten cents per bushel; wheat, twenty-five cents; butter three cents per pound, and pork one dollar and a half per hundred pounds, net. Whisky, however, was fifty cents a gallon, but people did not know how to manufacture it then as well as they do now, and beer was scarcely known in Butler County. Whisky, however, was the most profitable product, as it could be transported to the market with less expense, as there were no turnpikes, canals, or railroads, to facilitate travel; in fact, there were nothing but mud-roads. The farm implements, also, were very inferior to those now used, and grain separators, reapers, self-binders, and mowers were not known. Grain was cut with the sickle, and here and there a cradle was used.

The change for the AUGSPURGERs from Europe to America was very great, and especially for Christian AUGSPURGER as he lived on one of the finest and best improved farms in France, consisting of about five hundred acres of choice land. The farm was leased for a number of years, and belonged to Charles SCHULMEISTER, who served as a spy under Napoleon the First, and was considered to one of the best. His property was very valuable. The farm on which Christian AUGSPURGER lived was so well improved that princely personages and generals in the army frequently paid their visits there. SCHULMEISTER also lived on the farm. It happened, however, that Marshal Bertrand received a large territory from Napoleon the First on which he wished to introduce farming according to French style, and sought advice or information in regard to it; for which purpose he requested Christian AUGSPURGER to come to Paris, where Bertrand then lived. Christian AUGSPURGER complied with the request, and, in company with his cousin, Nicholas AUGSPURGER, went there for the purpose, to the satisfaction of the marshal. They were shown through all the parliamentary buildings and saw the throne. Later, Christian AUGSPURGER received the medal of the Legion of Honor, which is now in possession of his children as a memento. The medal consists of a ruby in the form of a star, with gilded points, and a ribbon affixed thereto, with a description, and signed in the name of the emperor.

In 1827, however, Christian AUGSPURGER family had increased to twelve in number, six sons and six daughters. The names of his sons were Joseph, Christian, Jacob, John, Samuel, and Frederick; and the names of his daughters were Catherina, Magdelina, Barbara, Mary, Jacobina, and Anna. In 1829 Christian AUGSPURGER bought another farm, about two and a half miles south of Trenton, in Madison Township, where he moved in 1830; and later the other AUGSPURGERs followed him to the vicinity of Trenton also.

In 1846 Christian AUGSPURGER's wife died, and in 1848 he also died. The property that Christian owned consisted of nineteen hundred and seventy-five acres of choice land in Butler County, besides a large personal estate, which was all divided equally among his children. The number of the descendants of the AUGSPURGERs now living is about one hundred and eighty, of whom about one hundred and fifty are living in Butler County; the others have moved to Illinois and Iowa, and two, C. KINSINGER and P. KINSINGER, are now living in Cincinnati with their families. The amount of land now owned by the descendants of the AUGSPURGERs, in Butler, Warren, and Preble Counties, is about three thousand six hundred and sixty-three acres. The AUGSPURGERs nearly all belong to the Mennonite denomination, as their fathers did.

Augsburger (Augsberger, Augspurjer, Oxberger, Augsbourger) family

A Mennonite family name, Augsburger has some origins in Langnau in the Emmental, canton of Bern, Switzerland. Most likely, however, the name was originally founded in Augsburg Germany during the 15th century.

Niggli (Nicholas) Augsburger is mentioned in a letter of 1700 as being a co-worker with Jakob Ammann, founder of the Amish Mennonites.

Generation 3 (con't)

Members of the Augsburger family were found in the Montbéliard Amish community as early as 1715 and near Corgémont in the Bishopric of Basel in 1720. John Augsburger (1783-18??) and wife were in the first party of Mennonite emigrants who left the Jura in the 19th century, leaving in 1817 to settle in northern Pennsylvania for 12 years before moving on to Wayne County, Ohio, and later to Adams Co., Indiana.

John Augsburger (1801-67) and wife left the Jura in 1834, settled in Wayne County, Ohio, for 16 years and then moved to near Bluffton, Ohio, where most of their descendants live.

Christian Augspurger (1782-1848) and his family came to North America in 1817 from near Strasbourg, Alsace, but being discouraged returned to their native land the following year. In 1819 they again came to America with other Amish Mennonites and founded a settlement in Butler County, Ohio. The above Christian Augspurger received from Napoleon the Legion of Honor medal as an expert farmer.

Notes for Clarence William Trine:

General Notes:

The discrepancy of place of death is probably the result of a rootsweb.com file that states where Clarence lived, and probably died, as opposed to where he was declared legally dead. The best example I have is my wife's father. He died at Indian Lake, Ohio. However, the ambulance took him to Wapakoneta, Ohio, where he was legally declared dead. His death certificate shows he died at Wapakoneta, Ohio.

I suspect we will find the same thing anytime there is a discrepancy between an official death certificate and the data provided by descendants in a rootsweb file.

October 12, 1948

Thank you very much. I appreciate that introduction very much, and I hope that Mrs. Goldman will be the next Congresswoman from this district, too.

The reception I am getting today in Illinois means victory for Paul Douglas, your next United States Senator, and for Olive Remington Goldman, your next Congresswoman, and for Adlai Stevenson, your next Governor--and for the straight Democratic ticket.

U.N. Deliberations on Draft Convention on the Political Rights of Women
Eleanor Roosevelt

As most of you know, the subject of this convention equal suffrage for women--is very close to my heart. I believe in active citizenship, for men and women equally, as a simple matter of right and justice. I believe we will have better government in all of our countries when men and women discuss public issues together and make their decisions on the basis of their differing areas of experience and their common concern for the welfare of their families and their world...

...This convention is the result of work in the Commission on the Status of Women. The United States is proud of the contribution it has been able to make to this Commission through the participation of our representatives, Judge Dorothy Kenyon and Mrs. Olive Goldman.

Notes for Wilda C Augspurger:

General Notes:

Wilda C. Augspurger's farm along Howe Road just east of Miltonville contains some of the acreage of the old Wolf farm. Augspurger noted that the Eckert family had also grown wine grapes. During stagecoach days the Eckerts built the house, now the Augspurger home. The Eckerts had a basement wine cellar with double doors wide enough through which barrels could be rolled for storage. Elias Mattix and his descendants also grew grapevines on terraces near Miltonville, their land being west of Elk Creek Road.

When disease and blight wiped out the Madison township vineyards, some farmers turned to producing peaches and apples. Harry Augspurger, Wilda's father, was a pioneer in this endeavor. The son continued in the fruit business and at one time picked and sent to market some 400 bushels a week during the ripening season. Augspurgers marketed apples from their orchards until 1975.
